

Do not allow these banks to take over our rights to stop phone solicitation. This causes nothing but problems for senior citizens and many others, because if they wanted to contact these companies and ask them questions they would do it, they don't need unwanted phone calls disturbing them at all hours of the day.